smplsolutions to Host Food Drive to Benefit South County Outreach

Lake Forest, CA – (October 3, 2012) – smplsolutions, your trusted business communications vendor, today launched a food drive to benefit South County Outreach, a local nonprofit that helps families through economic hardships. smplsolutions technicians can collect donations—such as canned or non-perishable food items--during service calls, or items may be dropped off at 20503 Crescent Bay Drive in Lake Forest, now through November 14.

“We depend on the generosity of the community as we strive to provide hunger and homeless prevention services to families who seek our help. We are thankful to have the support of companies like smplsolutions who are willing and able to give back to those in need in our community,” says South County Outreach Executive Director, Lara Fisher.

“This community has been supportive of our business and we want to give back,” says smplsolutions’ President & CEO, David Case. “We are especially pleased to work with South County Outreach, because the staff and volunteers work tirelessly to help local victims of the economy and make a difference.”

smplsolutions is an active member of the local community. The company sponsors semi-professional athletic teams, participates in the Lake Forest Chamber of Commerce, and provides telecommunications services to government organizations.
